

VENUE 310 welcomes national and international stars to 24 Rutland Square. As an official Edinburgh Festival Fringe venue, ClubFest will showcase poetry, fusion music, the spoken word and song during August. All show tickets can be purchased via the Fringe Box Office or at the door of the Club 15 minutes before the performance.

Tickets are £15 (£12 concession)

SymphRONica 5pm – 6pm
August 11th, 12th, 14th, 17th, 19th & 21st

A fantastic multi-mix of sounds and rhythms. SymphRONica fuses the electric/acoustic jazz quartet of pianist Ron Davis ("One of the great minds in jazz") with a string quartet. Together they explore the milieus of jazz, world, pop/dance and classical music. With special guest: drummer Seb Rochford.

Espresso Manifesto with Grammy Award-winning Canadian Daniela Nardi
9pm – 10pm
August 11th, 12th, 14th, 15th, 17th & 18th

Coffee is a stimulant. Art is stimulating. Daniela Nardi is a blend of both. Espresso Manifesto is her caffeinated lovechild of global music scenes that fuses traditional and contemporary sounds with seamless ease, transcending all barriers of language and culture.

Men's Morning with Mike Garry

12 noon – 1pm
Aug 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th & 25th

Within an Urban Ghetto is a Sanctuary. A safe space where guns, grievances & gang allegiances are left at the door. Where men meet, compete & speak and amidst the steam of the sauna, men's lives unfold and poetry occurs.

Fringe Fencibles present
Robert Adam: Architect of Enlightenment

12 noon / August 14th, 15th & 16th

Born in Fife, educated in Edinburgh and trained in Italy, Robert Adam was the son of a famous father and was followed into architecture by his two gifted brothers, James and John. Together the Adam family would stamp their mark upon great Town Houses, Country Houses and public Buildings in Scotland and also south of the Border.

Shaken & Stirred

5pm – 6pm
Aug 15th, 18th, 20th, 22nd & 23rd
Poets Ian Burgham, Catherine Graham, Steven Heighton and Jeanette Lynes bring the diversity and spirit of Canadian poetry together in a single event featuring their award-winning work. However you like your verse served, the Shaken and the Stirred will deliver.
