

Recommend a book!

It doesn't have to be the best book you have ever read, but there should be something in it which you liked and which makes it one to pass on to your friends – and The Edinburgh Reporter book club.

So what have you read?

What do you recommend and why?

Would you recommend one particular author?

The Scottish Book Trust have made their own recommendations and you can link to their website by clicking here.