

Ryan Grant Leaving Edinburgh

Grant, who played 14 games for the club, is a former Scotland age-grade internationalist who has gone on to win Scotland A honours and who has also represented the Army.

Ryan Grant

Edinburgh head coach Rob Moffat said: “Due to injury and the very good form of both Allan Jacobsen and Kyle Traynor at loose-head, Ryan has had little opportunity for us. There is a potential for Ryan to be in a better position to play more regular rugby with Glasgow. “
