

The Edinburgh International Book Festival

Many world famous authors including our own coterie of revered Edinburgh-based writers will be at the event, reading from their books, signing copies and speaking to their fans.