

Exhibitions at the RSA

The Royal Scottish Academy is presenting two very different exhibitions this month.

RSA New Works will present work by artists who have participated in the 2009 RSA Residencies Programme and will run in the RSA Finlay Room until 10th October.

RSA NEW WORKS

Until 10th October

This exhibition will present work by five artists who participated in the 2009 RSA Residencies for Scotland programme. As successful applicants for the programme, each of the five artists received funding (up to £5000) and an opportunity to spend time at RSA Partner arts venues across Scotland. These venues allowed the artist to further develop their practice in a period of research from one week to six months.

Paintings, photographs, prints, film work and sculpture resulting from these periods of research are exhibited as part of this exhibition.

The following artists are participating:

- Anthony Schrag – Deveron Arts, Huntly
- Becky Šik – Scottish Sculpture Workshop, Lumsden
- Frank Pottinger RSA – The Rendezvous Gallery/Tigh Alasdair Ruaraidh, Lewis
- James Lumsden – An Tallas Solais, Ullapool
- Patricia Cain – Wasps Artist Studio, Glasgow
