

What's on This Week? – 13th September

Another Festival for you! A very exciting week ahead in Edinburgh if you are interested in films – not just any old films but especially documentary films. Edindocs 2010 takes place at Churchill Theatre from 16th to 18th September. 25 films will be on show. Tickets available from the website. Other details about the partnership with National Library of Scotland are in our article here.

In a fiercely competitive global economy, Scotland's economic prosperity depends on our success as an outward-looking and enterprising nation. Scotland needs to set ambitious targets for growth in winning international business, and Scottish Council for Development and Industry (SCDI) has called for a commitment to double the value of Scotland's exports over the next decade. This is your opportunity to engage with global experts and contribute to the development of a blueprint for Scotland to achieve this goal. Attend the conference on Tuesday 14th September in Edinburgh!

Now in its second year, the SCDI Global Ambitions conference is established as the definitive international event in the Scottish business calendar.

The 2010 Greener Leith AGM will take place on the 14th of September at 7.30pm in the Leith Community Centre.

The Edinburgh Chamber of Commerce is organising The Hunt – a networking lunch at The Macdonald Holyrood Hotel on 14th September. You are expected to make a two minute speech to publicise your company – so be prepared!

6 Degrees of Networking are holding an evening networking event on 14th September at Marlins Wynd on Blair Street Edinburgh.

Charity Cupcake auction on 15th September at Centotre. More details will be available on this website here.

Morning networking event at Eteaket organised by JCI Edinburgh on 15th September.

Afternoon tea Blingo at the Hilton Caledonian on the 19th September. More details on this charity fundraiser here.

Remember the Farmers' Market this Saturday from 9am till 2pm on Castle Terrace.

As always we do our best to make sure that the details given are correct, but we would urge you to contact the event organiser in each case to ensure that no changes to dates or times have been made.