

ESPC are in a Spooky Spin

✘ On Saturday 30th October, from 11am-3pm, a team from an ESPC member firm will be dressing up for Halloween and raising funds for charity by cycling 100km in 4hours in the ESPC showroom.

This Halloween charity challenge will aim to help raise funds for an even bigger challenge next year, when the team be cycling 400km from Vietnam to Cambodia to raise money for Genesis Research Trust.

The Genesis Research Trust is a charity set up to research and promote education and awareness in women's health. In particular the charity specialises in the care of women and their children during pregnancy and the health of the female reproductive system.

Karen Turner, participant in the challenge comments, "We are really looking forward to the challenge in the showroom and already have our costumes prepared! We are really grateful to ESPC for giving us the opportunity to raise money for such a worthwhile cause, in such a prominent location.

Every visitor to the showroom on that day will receive a free day gym/swim pass to any Edinburgh Leisure Centre. Also, if you sign up on the day you'll benefit from no joining fee (normally £35)!

Michelle Rose, Sales Manger for Edinburgh Leisure added, "We are delighted to be involved in the event. Not only is it providing a fun way to raise money for charity, but we are also encouraging people to live a healthy and active lifestyle. If customers can't make it into the showroom on the day we are also offering an on-line competition which can be found at www.espc.com/spookyspin where every entrant wins a free one-week pass."

Edinburgh Leisure has provided ESPC with a 3 month and 6 month

Edinburgh Leisure pass to be won, worth £130.50 and £261 respectively. It will give the winner access to swim, gym and classes at all Edinburgh Leisure Centres across the city. Every entrant automatically receives a free one-week pass for the Edinburgh Leisure Centre of their choice.

Pop in on the day to show some Spooky Spin support for Halloween, all in aid of a great cause.
