

Keith Miller recognised by RICS Scotland

✘ RICS Scotland has accepted Keith Miller CBE, as a Fellowship member in recognition of his services to property.

Keith receives his membership through the Eminent Route, which is by nomination and only individuals recognised within the industry as a leader in their field, whose standing is beyond question and judged to be out of the ordinary, will be considered.

Those invited to join as a result of being nominated through the Eminent Route are admitted directly to FRICS level, reflecting their standing and achievements.

Currently Group Chief Executive of The Miller Group Ltd, Keith's has worked in the construction industry since 1971. His steady rise from Director to his current position has been accentuated with industry and business awards, including the award of an Honorary Doctorate of Engineering from Edinburgh Napier University in 2005.

Keith was also awarded a CBE in The Queen's New Year's Honours List for services to the construction industry in Scotland and to charity.

I was delighted to have been invited to become a Fellowship member of RICS Scotland. The RICS is renowned for its extremely important work within the industry and having been recognised in this way by the Institution is a tremendous honour.

Keith Miller CBE

Keith was nominated thanks to his outstanding contribution to the construction industry in Scotland; an area that needs strong support and commitment particularly in these difficult times. RICS Scotland is delighted to welcome Keith and the obvious expertise and industry knowledge he brings, that will benefit all our members.

John Edwards, chairman, RICS Scotland