

Music at the Botanics

✘ Broadcaster and singer-songwriter Frieda Morrison joins RBGE horticulturalist David Mitchell to explore the plants in the gardens next Saturday. With songs from Frieda's new album Morven and adventure stories about the Scottish plant-hunters from Dave, this will be a uniquely entertaining evening at the Lecture Theatre at 20a Inverleith Row.

Part of the Scottish International Storytelling Festival the evening kicks off at 7.30 and tickets cost £10. An invitation from Frieda here and more information from the Botanics website here.
