

Nils Lofgren at The Queen's Hall

☒ The Reporter is a big Lofgren fan and is therefore very very upset to find that a prior engagement will prevent attendance. So please go along and let us know what it is like to be in the same room as Nils...

Playing Shine Silently even as we are writing this – favourite song of all time... He is appearing at The Queen's Hall on Saturday 23 October 2010 at 7pm.

Legendary American songwriter, virtuoso guitarist and pianist Nils Lofgren is back in the UK this Autumn for a rare tour. He's famed for his appearance on Neil Young's seminal album After The Goldrush, as a long-time member of Bruce Springsteen's E-Street Band, touring with Dire Straits and as a superb front-man himself, both with Grin and under his own name.

Nils' latest album Sacred Weapon features contributions from legends Willie Nelson, David Crosby and Graham Nash, along with a duet with old Grin bandmate Bob Berberich. Expect classic Lofgren tunes like Take You To The Movies, Back It Up, Keith Don't Go and many others from his vast back catalogue.
