

Christmas is on its way....

Dobbies Garden World Melville in Edinburgh is waiting for something big...so big they say this is going to be the biggest in the UK this year!

They will have the official light switching on event this weekend on 14th November at 4pm when you are promised a secret Scottish Hollywood movie star! More details on their site. about the charity that they are raising money for this year The Starlight Children's Foundation.