

St Andrew's Day message from the First Minister

Here is a message for you on St Andrew's Day from First Minister, Alex Salmond, at the beginning of the Winter Festival Season.

Looking back to Scottish inventions and Scottish poetry and looking forward to a renewable future.