

Craigmillar Church nativity

A native North American nativity scene complete with a teepee instead of a stable is among 200 nativity exhibits from around the world on show at Craigmillar Park Church this weekend.

For the last seven years the church has put on an exhibition based on the collections of one of its members. Highlights from this year's exhibition include a North American teepee scene, an elegant Norwegian crystal group and a brightly coloured tin set from Mexico and more traditional scenes.

The exhibition is free to enter and open from 2pm to 4pm although donations will be gratefully received for Tearfund.

This Friday, 17th December, they host the Royal Blind Carol Service at 11.00am and they invite anyone to join them.
