

FAO Edinburgh Writers

We spoke to members of the Nanobeans writing group about their experiences of National Novel Writing Month 2010. Here's what they had to say.

The group meets twice a week throughout the year, on Thursdays at The Spoon Bistro from 5.30pm, and Sundays at the Princes Street Starbucks from 2pm. They are a friendly bunch and always welcome new writers, so why not pop along? If you don't want to write, there's free wifi to keep you occupied...
