

Happy New Year

Many revellers will be on the streets of all towns and cities in Scotland at midnight. Gone are the quiet days of house parties when everything else was closed. Have fun but stay safe!

Here is a New Year Message from the First Minister, Alex Salmond.