

Gulp helps you to find the way to your Valentine's Heart

Gulp knows the way to a man's heart is through his stomach! With a fabulous selection of products to delight your lover this Valentine's Day, the Edinburgh-based online retail company has almost everything you will need to delight your lover this February.

Offering everything (inedible) for eating, drinking, cooking, entertaining and giving, Irishwoman. Miriam Fogarty, a foodie who loves cooking, living and the whole lot in between, has left nothing off your wish list for a romantic evening in with your loved one.

Heart-shaped tea lights and candles will set the tone when as you greet your lover with a glass of champagne served in their slender red Artland Midnight Flute glasses.

- ❌ Dress your dining table with a the gorgeous Small Heart on Foot Vase, fabulous with just a single stem rose.
- ❌ If you want to send a "hint" why not use the Baci Milano Clear Napkin Ring, bling that will not go unnoticed or cost you a month's salary!
- ❌ In the morning why not serve piping hot tea in their Italian designed porcelain "feelings mugs"
- ❌ If you prefer something stronger, try the espresso cups from the gorgeous Guzzini "LOVE" collection.
- ❌ What better way to start any day, especially Valentines, than with breakfast in bed? The stunning Amore style heart toast rack, holding up to 4 pieces of toast, will get your loved one's day started in the perfect way!

All the items in our feature are available from Gulpfood online or from the North Berwick retail outlet.