

NKD Clothing announce new appointment

✘ The UK's leading bespoke staff outfitter is pleased to announce the appointment of Rav Singh as Non Executive Director. Managing Director of Bonhard Consulting Ltd, Singh has a broad base of experience especially in the financial arena and joins the NKD team to support their growth strategy.

With more than 21 years of commercial experience, Rav believes NKD has significant potential, which he aims to help the business realise. With a new year comes a new approach and Rav is able to offer the dedicated team an objective view of the business as well as using his connections to open doors to valuable opportunities.

Rav, who is now based in Perth following several years in Europe, said of the appointment:- "I'm confident NKD can expand in to new markets and products without diluting its brand values. I'm both delighted and privileged to be able to play a part in helping NKD Clothing to deliver its objectives and rise to the challenges that lie ahead."

NKD Clothing Owner, Gill Eastgate, added:- "Rav is passionate about NKD. He's keen to support the development of our business and I'm excited about the effective contribution I know he'll make to NKD. Rav is here to challenge both myself as Director and also our management team."
