

Edinburgh Job – Project Officer, Energy

✖ Changeworks is advertising a job for someone to work in their Sustainable Futures team. The advert reads:-

Project Officer, Energy (ref. P0E)

£20,520 – £25,716 (NJC scale AP3-AP4) dependent on experience, + 8% contributory pension.

Changeworks is a leading Scottish sustainable development charity. We are seeking a dynamic new Project Officer to work with our innovative and award-winning Sustainable Futures team. The role will support the research, development and delivery of practical and ground-breaking projects in the field of sustainable energy, carbon reduction and fuel poverty.

The role requires a sound knowledge of sustainable energy issues, research and project management. Excellent communication and IT skills are essential. Experience of working with communities or developing carbon reduction solutions would be desirable.

The post-holder will be based at Changeworks in Edinburgh, though some travel within Scotland will be required.

For an application pack, please contact Changeworks recruitment on 0131 555 4010 or recruitment@changeworks.org.uk quoting the reference above.

Closing date: Midday (12pm) 1/03/2011.

Interviews: 14/03/2011 at Changeworks' head office in Edinburgh.

You can read the advert here.