

RNLI Queensferry Lifeboat Fundraising Scottish Country Dance

- ❌ The Queensferry Lifeboat Fundraising Branch organised a Scottish Country Dance at Queensferry High School, with over seventy dancers enjoying the music of Jack Stalker. The evening raised approximately £500 for the RNLI Queensferry Lifeboat Station.
- ❌ The RNLI is an independent charity which does not receive any funding from the UK government. You can find out more about supporting this charity here.

The Royal National Lifeboat Institute is a 24-hour lifeboat search and rescue service that operates around the coasts of the UK and the Republic of Ireland. They rely on 40,000 volunteers, from those on lifeboats and beaches to those in fundraising.
