

What's on in Edinburgh this weekend? 4th February 2011

4th February 2011

1:10 PM Lunchtime concert: Performances by current music students from the University of Edinburgh, St Cecilia

Oxgangs Library is 20 and they are having a birthday party this afternoon between 2 & 4pm. If you manage to get along why not tell us about it? And no leaving cake crumbs in the books....

At The Usher Hall on Friday 4 February 2011 at 7.30pm you can enjoy the RSN0 playing Tchaikovsky. Tchaikovsky's symphonies aren't just about the melodies: they're no-holds-barred emotional autobiographies, bursting at the seams with all the composer's hopes, fears and desperate passions. And the Pathétique is the most overwhelming of them all. Plus keyboard fireworks too, as the supremely talented Gabriela Montero tackles Prokofiev's best-loved piano concerto.
