

bmi Regional celebrates ten years to Brussels

bmi Regional is celebrating the tenth anniversary of running services from Edinburgh to Brussels.

Since the launch of the route on 25 March 2001, over 425,000 customers have enjoyed the service and the route continues to grow in popularity.

Steven Griffiths, Business Director, bmi Regional, said:

“I am very proud that we have served Brussels with our unique and stylish service for ten years. These two great capital cities are both important business and tourism centres and we look forward to many more successful years of providing convenient and direct links between the two.”

Competitive business or economy fares are available, with complimentary catering on board and no charges for baggage or seat selection. Lounge facilities are available to all Business fare passengers as well as bmi Diamond Club frequent flyer members with Gold and Silver status.

bmi regional flights are direct between Edinburgh and Brussels, with three flights per day offered Monday to Friday, one on Saturdays and two on Sundays.
