

Edinburgh Jobs – Student Ambassadors

- ✖ This is an unpaid job but could be one worth putting on your CV.

The job advert reads as follows:-

In January 2010 the Festival City Trust launched a new Student Ambassador Scheme. Students from Edinburgh, Napier and Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh College of Art, Stirling University and Telford College were given the opportunity to get an insight into the work of the Trust with hands on marketing experience that has added meat to their C.V.s!

We are now looking for more students to work in campus focus groups to promote the Trust's productions (lots of amazing ones coming up!), and discounts; like our £10 Student Standby tickets throughout the new Academic Year 11/12.

If you'd like to apply we'd love to hear from you. Please email emma.robertson@eft.co.uk for more information on what the Ambassador position would involve.
