

Open Eye Gallery – New Exhibition 11th March 2011

Anthony Theakston Ceramic Sculpture

Distinctive designs inspired by the sculptural shape, elegance and movement of the bird form. Anthony studied Ceramic Design at both Cardiff and Bristol and has received many awards. His work is included in many international collections.

Wading Bird

The Word on Wood Susie Leiper

The poetry of landscape graces both natural and painted wood, in the form of wall pieces, folding and secret books. Susie is one of Britain's leading calligraphers, her works highlight the often-overlooked beauty of the painted word.

Donald Provan All at Sea

Path to the Sea oil on panel

Donald's work relates mainly to water and can be divided into the two distinct areas of the landscape above and the fish life below. Graduating from Edinburgh College of Art in 1986, he has participated in numerous exhibitions throughout the UK.

Exhibitions run till 29th March 2011 Monday to Friday 10-6 and Saturday 10-4

Open Eye Gallery 34 Abercromby Place Edinburgh EH3 6QE Tel 0131 557 1020

More details on the website or contact by email