

Sarah Brown to speak at Edinburgh WOW lunch in April

Sarah Brown is speaking at the WOW lunch next month being held in Edinburgh, and will talk about her book "Behind the Black Door", reminiscing over the years living with husband Gordon in Downing Street, when he was Prime Minister.

She will be accompanied by Professor Suzanne Hagen, a WOW researcher.

WOW stands for Wellbeing of Women, and Brown was formerly the President of this organisation, which seeks to improve women's health through research, training and education. She is the Founder and President of PiggyBankKids, Global Patron of the White Ribbon Alliance for Safe Motherhood and a former public relations executive. Sarah is a regular public speaker and you can follow her on Twitter

Edinburgh Lunch 2011 Poster

The charity has several campaigns underway at the moment including the Mother's Day Campaign to find better treatments for mothers and their babies.

You can book your tickets by printing out the application form here.

Ticket Application for Purple Lunch 2011