

Queensferry Rowing Club launch their boat

Part of The Scottish Coastal Rowing Project, the Queensferry Rowing Club launched their boat at the Harbour in South Queensferry.

The procession to the harbour was led by the Town Crier Lindsay Munro, the boat was blessed by Lord Provost George Grubb.

The Queensferry Rowing Club Patron, The Earl of Hopetoun, proposed the vote of thanks, after which the boat was named the "Ferry Lass" by Queensferry Ferry Fair Queen, Holly Taylor.

It was then launched and spectators were invited to  participate in rowing the boat.
