

Five things you need to know today

✘ Edinburgh Airport have this to say this morning:-

By the end of today we hope to be running a full service at Edinburgh Airport. Latest Update. We still advise passengers to check with their airlines before travelling to the airport as a number of flights may be disrupted as services return to normal.

We will continue to provide updates here if the situation should change and also on our Twitter.

The Development Management Sub-Committee meets this morning and we hope to bring you any news from that later today.

This evening at Portobello Town Hall at 7pm there is to be a Traffic Consultation Event.

In response to concerns from local people about parking congestion in the area, the East Neighbourhood Team would like to know your views on parking and traffic issues in Bath Street, Regent Street, Marlborough Street, Straiton Place and Bellfield Street and Lane.

So have your say on Wednesday 25 May at 7.00 pm in Portobello Town Hall.

The BBC report on the tributes being paid to off-duty Lothian & Borders Fire and Rescue Service firefighter, Paul Fleming, who sadly died in a house fire at the weekend.

The Leith Festival Box Office opened on Monday at its new location 121 Giles Street. Do you have your tickets? What are you going to see?

They also have a brand new box office phone number :- 0131 555

0501