

Helping you decide on your vote

☒ Almost the end of the parliamentary election campaign 2011 and tomorrow from 7am you can cast your vote. In our last ditch effort to help you decide who you will be voting for perhaps these videos will help

And when it is all over and you have cast your vote you can sit back relax and follow our coverage of the Edinburgh count from Ingliston tomorrow evening. We will be there when the count starts, and will bring you the Edinburgh results as and when they happen.
