

Competition: Dinner for 2 and overnight stay at Premier Inn

✖ To celebrate the launch of the new Premier Inn at Edinburgh Airport, which officially opened its doors last month, The Edinburgh Reporter has teamed up with the hotel to offer one lucky reader the chance to win dinner for two, and an overnight stay with breakfast at the stylish new accommodation.

The new 119 room state-of-the-art hotel at Newbridge is just a stone's throw from Edinburgh Airport and is a perfect place to stay before you fly off on holiday, making the early morning rush to the airport a thing of the past.

Before settling down for the night, our winners will have the chance to enjoy a dinner in the hotel's Thyme restaurant sampling a mix of delicious contemporary and traditional dishes. A great night's sleep and a hearty all-you-can-eat breakfast is also included in the prize.

✖ The Premier Inn, Newbridge experience includes Hypnose beds and a speedy check-in kiosk facility. Each room in the hotel is also fitted with specially designed acoustic windows to make sure each guest has a good, undisturbed night's sleep – guaranteed.

With over 590 hotels nationwide, Premier Inn has more sites than any other hotel chain within the UK with rooms starting at £29. For more information visit: www.premierinn.com
