

5 Films to see at the cinema this week

✘ Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 2

The final cinematic instalment is out this Friday in glorious 3D. Be sure to buy tickets early as anticipation for Harry's final showdown with Lord Voldemort has reached fever pitch. If you get along to The Odeon at midnight on Thursday you can actually be among the first to watch it in Edinburgh – with your own Harry Potter 3D glasses!

Midnight Tango-Live

Watch the Strictly Come Dancing duo, Vincent Simone and Flavia Cacace, dance live for one night only on Wednesday 17 July 2011. The show will be broadcast live from the Bristol Hippodrome during its sold-out run of 80 dates nationwide and features a cast of elite tango dancers. It is showing in Cineworld at 19.15 and Vue cinema in Omni Centre at 19.30.

Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara

For those looking for alternatives to the usual Hollywood fare this Bollywood road trip movie offers a breath of fresh air. Watch three men embark on a journey full of surprises through Egypt and Spain. The film will be showing at Cineworld this Friday.

The Tree of Life

An all-star cast including Brad Pitt and Sean Penn brings ✘ this soul searching story to life. This movie won the prestigious Palme d'Or at this year's Cannes Film Festival. Three daily showings of this film at The Cameo.

Bridesmaids

If you haven't already seen it be sure to catch this hit comedy which has been hailed as the female equivalent of The Hangover. Perfect for a girls' night out? Various times at Cineworld.

A wee preview here:-