

Tickets for Virgin Money Fireworks Concert available 18 July 2011

✘ The Virgin Money Fireworks Concert will have a second allocation of tickets available on the 18th of July at 10am. They can be purchased online, over the phone and in person at The Hub.

The event will conclude the Edinburgh International Festival and will once again take place at Princes St Gardens on the first Sunday in September. The fireworks display will be accompanied by a live score inspired by Russian royalty and Chinese romance played by the Scottish Chamber Orchestra.

Jonathan Mills, Festival Director of the Edinburgh International Festival, said: "The Virgin Money Fireworks Concert will be a fantastic finale to the Edinburgh International Festival. It is an unmissable night for Edinburgh residents and their guests."

An allocation of Gardens tickets for the Virgin Money Fireworks Concert is released for sale at 10am on Monday 18th July online. These are limited to four per person.

The final allocation of Gardens tickets will go on sale for counter sales only at Hub Tickets on Saturday 3rd September at 10am.

