

Flying in Leith with Peter Pan

Angels Aerials and Leith on the Fringe @ Out of the Blue Drill Hall present Peter Pan.

Aerial theatre show and flying workshop for children aged 6+ and the whole family. The ANGELS perform an aerial acrobatic display; flying through the air, running up the walls, and swooping over the heads of their audience. ANGELS Aerials make the sky their stage.

Have you ever dreamt of flying like Peter Pan? ANGELS Aerials make it possible. With their breathtaking aerial adaptation of J.M. Barrie's classic tale they take you on a journey through the air and into the dreams of childhood.

Join the adventure, the sword fighting, and the magic. Children in the audience are invited to sit on the stage and the action unfolds over their heads!

Learn what makes a crocodile dance and a sofa cry...A thrilling action show for the whole family and children of all ages. Join us after the show for a flying workshop, suitable for the whole family, and learn to fly like Peter Pan!

'I won't go to school! I won't learn any boring stuff! I won't go to bed! I will always stay a boy and have fun!' (Peter Pan, J.M. Barrie)

Any soothing words are in vain; Peter Pan never never wants to grow up. And why would he learn his sums instead of searing through the sky with the Lost Boys? But Peter Pan has bigger problems: he has lost his shadow. And if that wasn't enough trouble his all-time enemy is in hot pursuit – the most vicious pirate of all times: Captain Hook until he has young Peter in his grasp!

But where is Peter?

Direct from a sell out tour in Germany 'ANGELS Aerials' bring their thrilling, family show to Edinburgh for the very first time.
