

Results of the City Centre By-Election

✖ So the dust is settling. The result of the city centre by election was made known just before the One o'clock gun sounded, and the SNP group has retained its seat on the council. This means that the coalition administration is no longer in any danger of collapsing.

And the winner is Alasdair Rankin SNP

The results in full are at the bottom of the article but we have interviews with all candidates for you here:-
