

Scottish Independent Record Fair 7 August 2011

✖ Why not spend the first Sunday of the Fringe hanging out in Edinburgh's most unusual new bar – Summerhall's Dissection Room!

Grab a drink, listen to some fine music and buy lots of great records from some of Scotland's best loved record labels and bands.

Look out for some great new music and enjoy listening to live acoustic music throughout the afternoon in the Anatomy Lecture Room and DJ sets in the Dissection Room.

Featuring stalls from Scottish independent record labels including Chemikal Underground, De-Fence Records, Fence Records, Gerry Loves Records, record label and art collective LuckyMe, Retreat!, Rock Action Records, the label founded by Mogwai, Song, By Toad Records and the band FOUND and more to be announced...

Summerhall is Edinburgh's most exciting new multi-arts festival venue (Fringe venue no.26). Formerly the Royal Dick Veterinary School, Summerhall has transformed into a vibrant arts hub for the Edinburgh Festival 2011 and is to be the Fringe focus for high-quality alternative and experimental Theatre, Art, Music, Literature, Film and Special Events.

For more information head to the Facebook page for the event

Scottish Independent Record Fair

This Sunday 7 August, 1pm – 7pm

[googleMap name="Dissection Room" width="400" height="400"]1
Summerhall, EH9 1QH[/googleMap]