

Competition – Win tickets for Afternoon Tea at The Howard Hotel

The Howard is hosting 'A Well Polished Afternoon Tea' event in association with Absolute Nails on Sunday 11th September and they would love it if you could join them.

Enjoy afternoon tea while receiving a professional manicure from a member of the Absolute Nails team – bring along a friend of two and unwind for the afternoon!

A well-polished afternoon tea – What better way to finish off your weekend than to have our fabulous afternoon tea and then get your nails filed and polished – it might make Monday seem a whole lot further away!

Just £29.95 per person

There are a few tickets available, which can be booked via hotel reception either in person, by telephone on (0131) 557 3500 or via email at reserve@thehoward.com

A Well Polished Afternoon tea is just one of several afternoon tea events The Howard have coming up over the next few months, for details on future events please visit the website.

We have a pair of tickets available for someone to win. You just have to answer this simple question.

Question: The Afternoon Tea Club has many exciting events coming up over the next few months. What is the name of the January event?

Send your answer by email to theedinburghreporter@gmail.com with Competition The Howard Hotel in the subject line. Send your answer in by Friday 9 September 2011 at 12 noon.

