

Christmas night out – bring Monaco to Edinburgh

The opulence and sophistication of one of Europe's favourite destinations will be the scene for Edinburgh's most spectacular Christmas party nights of the year, taking place at the Royal Highland Centre. 'Midnight in Monte Carlo' an event themed on Monaco's iconic Grand Casino, will bring guests, all seeking a bit of sparkle, a night of extravagance at the Millionaires Casino.

After playing the slots, Roulette and Blackjack guests will satisfy their hunger with a five course meal before being entertained by the Showgirl Cabaret, Aerial Silk Dancers, dodgems and Grand Prix simulators which allows guests to step into the shoes of racing legends and put their driving skills to the test as they race the amazing Monaco circuit.

Archie Glendinning, director of the Royal Highland Centre said:-"Best Parties Ever is renowned for staging incredibly creative, extravagant and thoroughly enjoyable Christmas party nights.

"'Midnight in Monte Carlo' is a refreshingly different offering for Christmas Party nights in Edinburgh. Guests can come for a night of entertainment, enjoy a five course meal and lots of entertainment from cabaret performances to dodgems and the casino. The Royal Highland centre offers a great venue, with plenty of car parking and on-site hotel accommodation for those not wanting to travel far."

Organised by Best Parties Ever, the UK's leading Christmas Party specialist will host a number of party nights at the Royal Highland Centre throughout December. Last year the event organisers hosted a Hot in Havana themed event.

Tim Stevens, managing director of Best Parties Ever said:-
"Edinburgh's partygoers will get a night to remember at 'Midnight in Monte Carlo'. The opulent setting of the casino will offer something for everyone from the grand prix simulators and dodgems to stunt dancers and jazz bands. It's sure to be a great night, so come and join us."

'Midnight in Monte Carlo' will be at the Royal Highland Centre throughout December.
