

Fire at Cottage in Straiton

☒ Firefighters battled with a blaze at row of derelict cottages which broke out in Straiton last night.

Three fire engines and a cherry picker were called to the scene and found a cottage 'well alight' on arrival, the fire service said.

Firefighters used a high pressure hose reel to extinguish the flames, as well as three water pumps.

More from Deadline News...