

Getting out of Edinburgh – Baby Bump Fair 6 November 2011

✖ The National Childbirth Trust of Falkirk and West Lothian are to bring back their hugely successful Baby Bump Fair.

The event is held on Sunday 6th November 2011 at the Marriott Dalmahoy, Kirknewton from 11am-4pm.

The 2007 Fair won the branch an award from Head Office and the following fair in 2009 was even more successful.

The fair will have a range of different exhibitors specialising in all different aspects of childbirth such as: Birth, babies and toddlers, and the NTC aspires to reach out to as many future and current parents as possible.

Amongst this year's numerous contributors are infants specialists: More4Mums, Human Nature HypnoBirthing and Little Ones Knitting. Many of these exhibits will provide free taster sessions throughout the day, with information on essentials such as antenatal and breastfeeding available.

Spaces are limited however for these taster sessions, but you can book up now by e-mailing bookings@bumpandbabyfair.co.uk.

In addition to the exhibitions, there will be a free prize draw and raffle with prizes including a champagne spa day for 2 at the Norton House Hotel plus £250 worth of gift vouchers for PictureHouse Studios.

All those interested in attending the event can contact the Baby Bump Fair website.
