

Harvey Nichols opens Foodmarket Pop-up Shop tomorrow

✘ This autumn, Harvey Nichols has come up with what they think might be the perfect solution for the manic run up to Christmas with their very own Foodmarket Pop-Up Shop on Multrees Walk.

Open from October 15 2011 through to December 31 2011, the pop-up store will house every Harvey Nichols Christmas essential imaginable. The idea is inspired by a classic last-minute gift-wrap theme and clad in traditional brown paper gift-wrap.

Harvey Nichols tell us that they will be offering “an eclectic selection of distinctive and award-winning own label food and wine, and the pop-up will be selling the delicious Marc de Champagne Christmas pudding, the famous mince pies, rich brandy butter, divine Harvey Nichols Port and other indispensable festive delights. Also available will be an array of seasonal gifts and indulgences such as Deli Garage’s gold food spray, a fun gift set by Bubbleology, the unique Edgerton Pink Gin and other tasty treats. Not forgetting our unbeatable Christmas Hamper collection, the pop-up will offer a range of hampers made up and ready-to-go, as well as the option to specially hand pick the contents and put together individual, personalised hampers.”

And to take your shopping home, Harvey Nichols bag for life is a must-have, and will be on sale at the Multrees Walk pop-up.
