

Scotland Loves animation comes to Edinburgh

The Cameo will be showing anime films on 26 November 2011.

Scotland Loves Animation, who brought the successful Scotland Loves Anime festival to Glasgow and Edinburgh, are proud to announce their partnership with the City Screen group and their amazing 20 UK screen theatrical run of anime films on 26 November. All 20 cinemas will be screening some of the hottest anime titles in the last 12 months under the title We Love Anime, including The Cameo.

For one day only (except The Aubin Cinema, London) Tekken Blood Vengeance, Mardock Scramble Parts 1 and 2 and a Kids Club screening of Professor Layton and the Eternal Diva will be in cinemas across the UK* from Aberdeen to London and many other places.

Scotland Loves Animation have also teamed up with Namco Bandai Games, Kaze and Manga UK, to offer some incredible prizes and specials offers.

If you missed the Scotland Loves Anime festival before, then this is the perfect opportunity to see anime on the big screen.
