

Edinburgh Fundraising Diary – Childline Lunch at Rhubarb

☒ On Monday 21 November you can join the Edinburgh & Lothians Volunteer Fundraising Committee for Childline to have lunch at the award-winning restaurant, Rhubarb, at Prestonfield House.

Entertainment will be provided by Alex Renton award winning writer for The Guardian and the Telegraph who will be talking on the subject of “let’s never darken Tesco’s Doorstep again!”

Raffle prizes include Champagne Afternoon Tea for 4 at Prestonfield, a carton of 6 bottles of Chateau D’Artadens Bordeaux 2002, and a beauty treatment from Susanne’s in Cumberland Street.

The lunch starts at 12.15 and will finish at 2.30p.m.

Tickets are £45 which covers the cost of your lunch and a glass of wine and are available from Val Ball on 07747 896038 or by email

ChildLine is a counselling service for children and young people.
