

Olympic rings at Edinburgh Castle – yes or no?

A huge Olympic logo could be draped across Edinburgh Castle's walls as a giant advert for the London Olympics.

Games organisers have lodged plans to attach an aluminium Olympic insignia to the north face of the castle.

The scheme is part of a vision to promote the English event as "inclusive and UK-wide."

More from Deadline News...

But what do you think? Should we allow Edinburgh Castle to be adorned in this way? Have your say below!