

Trial Edinburgh Sheriff Court – Man accused of putting girl in Freezer

A man accused of putting a four-year-old girl in a freezer warned his victim he would kill anyone she told, a court heard today.

The girl, giving evidence by video link, said she was lifted in to the freezer by Stuart Kitt, suffering burns.

The girl, now eight, claimed she was then told by the 33-year-old he would kill anyone she told about the incident.
