

The Edinburgh Reporter advent calendar – Gift ideas for babies, children and home – Blockart

Blockart is Kirsty Hutchison's baby. She explained to The  Edinburgh Reporter:-

"I am a Scottish designer based in Midlothian, where I produce art for babies, children and home.

I have a wide variety of Art, some personalised, some presented in packets of three as gift boxes.

All the art is mounted onto Blocks which is enviromentally-friendly fibre board).

I have art called Baby birth Prints, celebrating baby's birth....

I do child's quotes; where I immortalise funny kid's sayings onto an art block...

I have art directed at grannies and aunties, highly personalised for them.

I have art for toddlers, art for young people and art for weddings and christenings....."

So there really is something for everyone here!
