

The Edinburgh Reporter Advent Calendar – Gifts for him – 21st Century Kilts

✖ Howie R Nicholsby's 21st Century Kilts was first created in 1996, and Howie himself never wears anything except a kilt, even when commuting to the shop on his bike!

The dedicated Thistle Street store, opened January 2009, and has proved a hit with city centre shoppers, and some stars feature among its clients!

The shop stocks an incredible range of modern and alternative tartan choices, so you can be sure there will be something for you, and something very different from the usual.

✖ As well as kilts you can buy the whole range of accessories from kilt pins to sporrans, kilt socks to mobile phone holders...

The kilt is the correct choice for any occasion from weddings to daywear according to Howie.

Appointments are recommended for kilt fittings, but please call in at 21st Century Kilts, 48 Thistle Street or Telephone 0131 220 9450
