

Ceilidh Flashmob!

Parliament Square was the place to be this lunchtime to take part in a ceilidh flashmob. The event was organised by The Ceilidh Club which is Edinburgh's biggest (and they say best!) ceilidh. These are run for all levels of dancers with a caller to teach the dances. They brought their fun to Parliament Square today and we spoke to one of the organisers about it:-

Ceilidh Flashmob! \(mp3\)

Lovely to see loads of people having fun! You can join the Ceilidh Club at either Pollock Halls or The Bongo Club. Follow them on Facebook for more details.