

Five things you need to know today

Edinburgh Airport the best? – Edinburgh Cycling
– Apprenticeships – Grange and Prestonfield Community Council
– Sunday Brunch Club

The Scotsman tells us that Edinburgh Airport has been voted the second best in Europe for what is always euphemistically called “customer satisfaction”. Anyone who flies out of Edinburgh Airport regularly will know that it is not always the most pleasurable travel experience, but there have been recent improvements to facilities such as seating and restaurants.

Edinburgh Guide writes about the apparent rising star of cycling in Edinburgh. We published an article written by the Transport convener yesterday explaining some of the ways in which the money will be used. Watch this space. More news imminent!

Councillor Cameron Rose bemoans the loss of apprenticeship opportunities in his recent blog post, which he directly attributes to the rejection of outsourcing or ABM, and which he describes as ‘scandalous’.

Grange and Prestonfield Community Council meet tonight at Cameron House Community Education Centre 34 Prestonfield

Avenue EH16 5EU at 7p.m.

Sunday Brunch Club is a bit of a misnomer really. It gives the impression of lazy types sitting around eating an extended breakfast every weekend, whereas the truth is that they hardly sit down at all. If you are wallowing in the post-Valentine Day blues or just need to zap up your social life, then have a look at all the events they list on their Facebook page. Tomorrow night they are going to see Grammy Award winning film, The Artist.
