

Two Missing teenage girls in Edinburgh

Julieanne Black

Police in Edinburgh are appealing for information on the whereabouts of two teenage girls who have gone missing together in the Capital.

Julieanne Black (13), and Zeina Sirrieh (15), were last seen at Zeina's home in the Western Harbour area of Edinburgh around 7.15pm yesterday.

They both left together, but have not been seen or heard from by their families since.

Julieanne is described as white, 5ft 6ins tall, slim build, with short brown hair. She was last seen wearing a blue hoody, beige trousers, and black Adidas trainers with red, yellow and green stripes, and a yellow sole.

Zeina is described as white, 5ft 8ins tall, medium build, with blonde hair, a purple fringe, and a shoulder-length ponytail. She was wearing grey tracksuit bottoms, brown UGG boots, a purple/grey Adidas jacket with hood, and carrying a black Adidas bag with white logo.

A Lothian and Borders Police spokesman said: "While there are no immediate concerns around their safety, the girls' families are concerned over their welfare, and we are appealing for any information that can help us trace them.

“Both girls are known to frequent the Hunters Square area of the city centre, and we are appealing to anyone who has seen or heard from them since they went missing last night to contact police immediately.

“Anyone else who has any other information that can help our inquiries should also get in touch.”

Anyone with any information should contact Lothian and Borders Police on 0131 311 3131, or Crimestoppers in confidence and complete anonymity on 0800 555 111.
