

Buddies Bunnies holding a Rabbit Awareness Day

☒ Buddies are holding an Awareness Day on Saturday 24 March 2012 at Carrington Village Hall, Carrington by Gorebridge from 10a.m. till 4p.m.

They have told us:-“We will have loads of stands and stalls, where you can talk bunnies, meet bunnies, buy bunnies (well bunny crafts) and even eat a bunny biscuit with a lovely cuppa!!

The vets will be there and we will have Rowan jumping on his agility course for you all to watch. For diet/feeding advice and also to meet the Buddies Team come along on the day.

Please help make this a wonderful event – fun for all the family – face painting and arts and crafts for kids too!! :)”

£3 entry – kids go free
