

Portobello Councillor 'appalled' at news of possible court appeal

News was released this morning that the campaign group PPAG are to lodge an appeal at the Court of Session against the decision handed down earlier this month relating to the plans the council have to build a new Portobello High School in Portobello Park.

The Reporter has spoken with Councillor Maureen Child about the latest news

listen to 'Councillor Maureen Child' on Audioboo