

Council Elections 2012 – Meet the candidates – Adam McVey

Adam McVey is one of the two SNP candidates standing for election in Leith Ward.

Adam has most recently worked for Amnesty International and a leading social investment trust, having previously worked in insolvency and for the Edinburgh Fringe Festival. He is an Economics graduate of Dundee University and an International Law graduate of Edinburgh University.

Adam joined the SNP more than eight years ago because of the Iraq war and was motivated to stand for council to help make an impact on environmental and housing issues in the city.

We do not have a photo of him and we need a copy of his election leaflet. Can you help? Please email us
